Racing Group Questions Spa Battle

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Racing Commission today directed the Hot Springs Kennel Club to "make a full disclosure as to just what is going on" in the fight over who will control the corporation set up to build a greyhound racing track.

And at Hot Springs, Chancellor Sam W. Garratt filed for the minority stockholders in the court suit which inspired the commission's action.

Garratt agreed with the minority group that a June 13 election at which new officers and directors were chosen had been called without the 20-day notice required by the corporation's charter.

Corporation President Milan S. Creighton said he would call another meeting giving the proper notice.

Meanwhile, the corporation's original board of directors—rather than the recently elected one—will serve.

The Racing Commission set a meeting here for 9:30 a.m. Wednesday to look into the Kennel Club row.

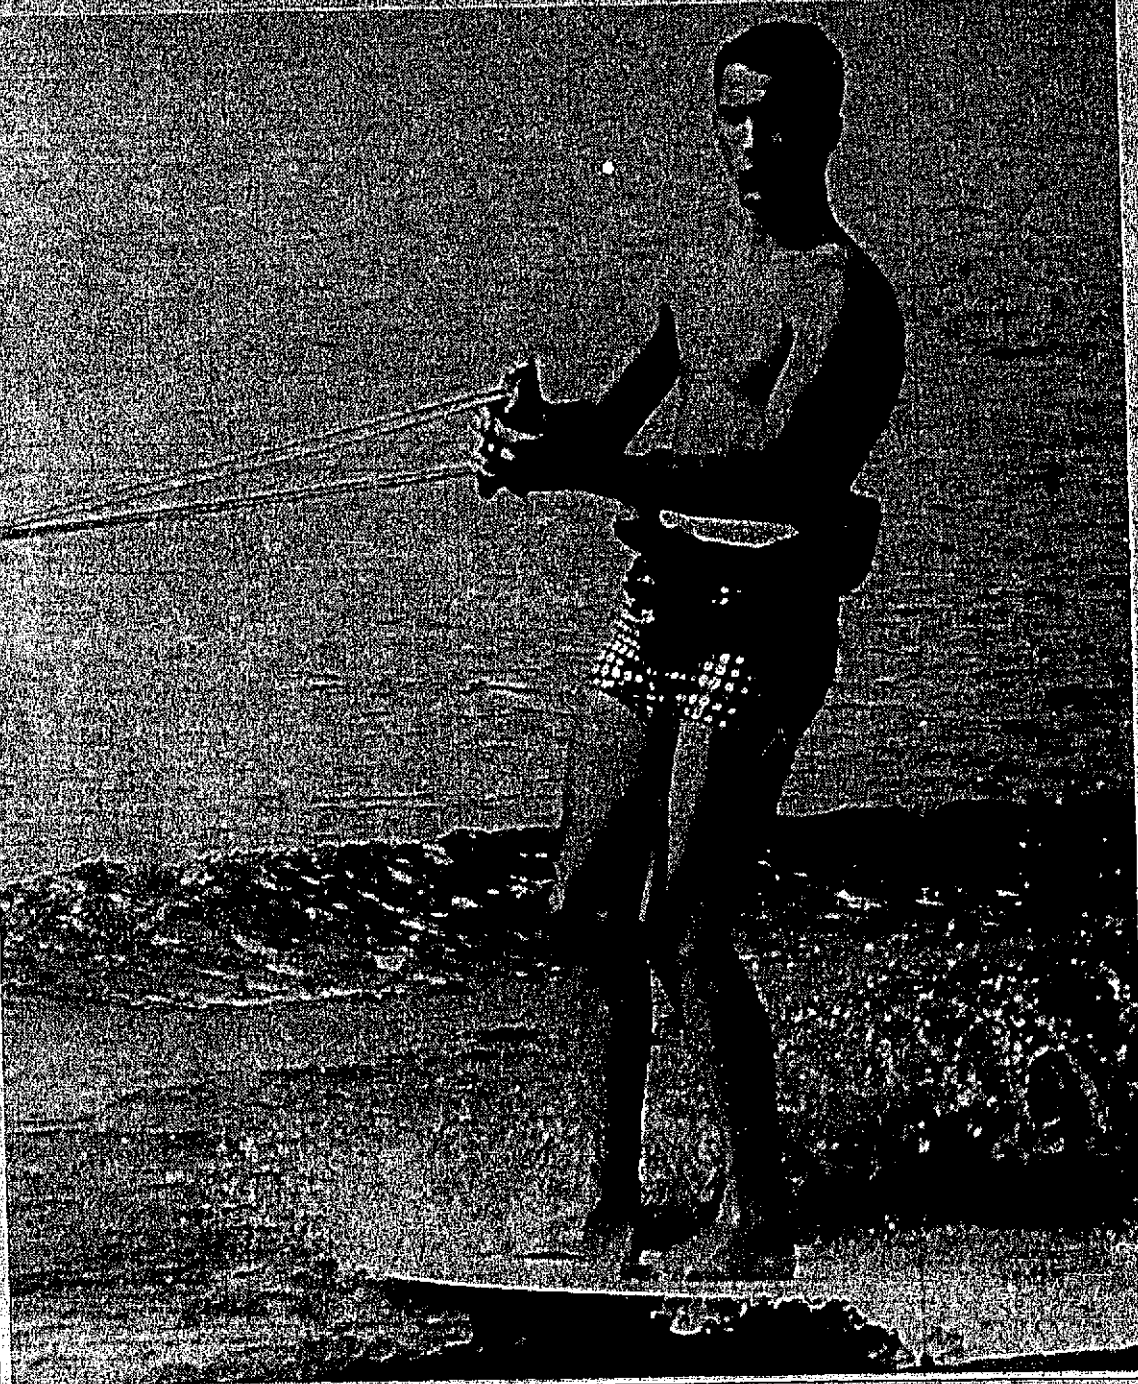

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney said Dr. Ed Dunaway of Conway, the commission chairman, "has instructed me to have the attorneys on both sides in this case bring all of their books and records to the meeting prepared to make a full disclosure to the commission."

Cheney is ex-officio secretary of the commission.

Cheney said the commission had noticed publicly about "the fussing that is going on and wants to know what it is all about."

"The commission feels that since it has issued a permit to the club to build the track as required by law, it is entitled to know what is going on."

The Wednesday meeting will be held at the State Capitol.

Child Reunited With Mother After Wreck

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—A 5-year-old boy, stranded in this north Florida town when his father was killed in a traffic accident, was reunited with his mother today.

Taylor County Judge Byron Butler awarded Sylvia Hendrickson to her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Davis, of Bentonville, Ark. Mrs. Davis arrived in Portland this morning.

She said she would pay $100,000 to get her son home from the orphanage.

The boy's grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Hendrick of Portland, also sought to obtain custody of the child.

The mother and father, Henry Hendrick, 37, were divorced in 1950 and the mother since has remarried.

Mrs. Davis displayed the judge's order in an Arkansas court, ordering her custody of the boy at the time of the divorce. She said Hendrick had taken the boy without her knowledge or consent following the divorce.

"There was nothing for me to do but honor the Arkansas court decree," Judge Butler said.

The father was killed when struck by a truck during a storm on an automobile highway. The boy had been saved for a Port by Mr. and Mrs. William Craft, who have two children of their own.

Warehouse Guttured by Fire at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—Five destroyed the Dillard's Department Store warehouse yesterday. The two-story brick building was filled with household appliances and furnishings.

Firemen fought the flames more than three hours before getting them under control. Cause of the fire was not determined.

William Dillard, store president, said it would be several days before an estimate of loss could be made.

Dwinell Nominated Asst. Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Lang Dwinell, Republican former governor of New Hampshire, was nominated by President Eisenhower today to be assistant secretary of state for administration.

Dwinell, 52, was named to succeed career diplomat Walter K. Scott, who will be reassigned.

Dwinell's nomination is subject to Senate confirmation.

He served as governor of New Hampshire from 1955 until January 1959.

During 1956-59, he was a member of the Executive Committee of the National Governors' Conference.

Faubus Likes Russell for Presidency

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today said that Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia is his choice for the Democratic nomination for president.

Faubus called Russell his "first choice" and said he didn't have a second choice.

The governor wouldn't speculate on what chance Russell might have to get the nomination.

The choice of Russell came as something of a surprise. In the past, Faubus has given indications that he might favor Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Senate majority leader, or possibly Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri for the Democratic nomination.

Faubus said Russell "is a very able man and believes in the constitution." But added that "I don't know if he will even be a candidate."

Faubus said that Vice President Nixon and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York seemed the strongest possibilities for the Republican presidential nomination.

"I would say right now that it is a toss-up between them," he commented.

He expressed his views in reply to reporters' questions at a news conference.

Newsman sought to draw out Faubus on the possibility of his seeking a fourth term nomination as governor.

McClellan Sees Rights Bill Delay

WASHINGTON (AP)—A sponsor of the states' rights bill says he may have to wait until next year to see it passed.

"It may be that we can't get it out of committee this year," Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) said yesterday.

"We may have to do more work on it and let it go over until next year."

The House by a vote of 225-192 passed its version of the bill last week.

The bill says federal laws do not supersede state laws in the same field unless (1) Congress says so, or (2) there is an irreconcilable conflict between the laws.

The U. S. State Department brushed aside Soviet notes to the Western Big Three protesting the holding of the election in West Berlin. Officials in Washington termed the notes a new effort to meddle in Germany's internal affairs.

LOOK AGAIN! TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A radio newsman, broadcasting traffic conditions from an airplane over the city, announced a terrible jam in one small area. Then he quickly corrected himself. He had sighted two used car lots.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION at Los Angeles next summer is timed close to the Arkansas governor's race.

"If I should consider running for governor, I would at the same time consider that I was strong enough to take a week out of the campaign to go to the national convention," Faubus replied.

Then he laughed that "I didn't tell you a thing, did I?"

West Germans Go on With Elections

BERLIN (AP)—West Germany pushed ahead today with plans for a presidential election in isolated Berlin despite Soviet warnings such a move will be viewed as a provocative act.

Officials remained alert as Communist East German officials said they would look the election and miles behind the Iron Curtain with "great seriousness." But there was no expectation of any real trouble when the Electoral College meets Wednesday.

THESE PHOTOGRAPHS were made by The Editor on three excursions to the Narrows with local teenagers using equipment manufactured by Ramwood of Hope.

SKI PICTURES REQUIRE a technique all their own. On the first excursion, Wednesday, June 17, The Editor anchored his outboard cruiser on a point entering Parker Creek and had the ski folks run by him for the photos, both in black and white and color.

The second outing, Saturday, June 20, he tried photographing with the ski performer trailing his own boat. And on Wednesday, June 24, he found the best method of all—photographing from the top of the cruiser while running parallel to the ski boat.

ALL THE PICTURES were taken with the Contax's ton shutter speed—1/250th of a second.

ATTY. GEN. William P. Rogers announced filing of the suit in U. S. District Court at New Orleans. It is the third voting rights action to be taken under the 1957 Civil Rights Act.

The previous actions, in Georgia and Alabama, were knocked down by U. S. District Court and are now being appealed to the Supreme Court.

The suit at New Orleans named as defendants: Washington Parish Registrar of Voters Curtis M. Thomas; the White Citizens Council of Washington Parish; and four of its members.

were named as instigators.

"JUST ROUTINE"

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Gerald D. Hendrickson didn't have time to read a news story about a woman who had given birth to four consecutive sets of twins. She was too busy caring for her own four consecutive sets.

Mrs. Hendrickson was unimpressed when told that the odds of such a thing happening were about 100,000,000 to one. "I thought it was routine," she said.

The Hendricksons have 12 children. He is a chief petty officer in the Navy.

Ray McElveen, Saxon Farmer, and Eugene Farmer—described as Council members.

The suit charges that between November of last year and June 16, some 12 Negroes were taken off the voting rolls as a result of challenges of their eligibility by Citizens Council members.
